Stonhard is Pleased to Announce the Promotion of David Senn to Director of Global Accounts

June 2, 2021 — Stonhard, the unprecedented leader in manufacturing and installing high-performance seamless floors, continues to build upon and expand its Global Accounts team. The company is pleased to announce the promotion of David Senn to the position of Director of Global Accounts.

David has been building relationships with Stonhard customers worldwide since 2011. “David has built some of the strongest accounts over the years and has been instrumental with helping shape our Total Hygienic approach for the Food and Beverage market. He will continue to handle accounts directly as well as oversee a team of Global Account Managers,” says John Walsh, Vice President of Business Development.

David started his career with Stonhard as a Territory Manager and became a National Accounts Manager, followed by Global Accounts Manager, within the short span of four years. He earned his MBA from Kent State University and has a CDT certification from the Construction Specifications Institute.

“I’m excited about continuing to build our global brand and relationships with national and international customers,” says David. “Stonhard continues to deliver innovative solutions and wide-ranging capabilities needed to last in intense, around-the-clock industrial facilities throughout the world. In addition, we provide in-person consultations to set global hygiene standards.”
